Think Space!

The winning combination which makes for an ideal living space. Today we live in a world where most choices are not ours to make, but to adapt with.

In such a world, one's home and office space is his only realm; his territory where he expresses himself and creates comfort as he desires. Such an environment is only created through the use of flexible home and office furniture, fabricated with the intention of enabling the end-user to be expressive; to create an exclusive, distinguished environment.

To help the customer feel that his sense of style has been implemented in his personal territory, Italfoam bases its work on manufacturing such flexible furniture, while at the same time keeping affordability in mind. Towards that end, our most valuable profile comes when an Italfoam customer feels cozy at home with our products.

It is a basic human instinct to seek shelter. We are drawn to the nest and, even at home, seek out our secure retreats. One of those retreats is inevitably the sofa and most aspects of life happen in, on and around it.

It is one object for sleeping, lounging, eating, reading, entertaining, playing, discussing, napping, listening, wrestling, studying and viewing, and living in.

Florence

Perfect example where artisan skill and attention to detail reach new heights.

The new generation sofa is inspired by modern style.

Made from soft, high-quality leather, it's designed with a supportive high backrest and generous angled armrests. This is Florence.

With its own ambiance, Florence becomes a place of tranquility.

There's no need to get up, or sit on the floor, there's room for everyone on Florence.

If you can't find room on the extra deep seat cushions, there's plenty of space on the wide and low armrests, or the strong cushioned back. Combine different parts together and create your own social centre.

1. The seat cushions are made with highly resilient polyurethane foam, a material that maintains its shape and comfort for years. For extra comfort they also come with a layer of soft feathers. A tip on keeping Florence seat cushions in great condition? Fluff them a couple of times a year.

2. Super strong, yet very comfy, these padded armrests make the perfect extra seat.

3. Zippers make the covers extra easy to remove and put back on. And thanks to details like piping on the covers, Florence always has a tailored look and shape—even after being washed.

Velonda

With Velonda, everything's designed to go together, so it's easy to get it right. Patterns, stripes, solids, two seaters, armchairs or Pouf.you decide.

Buy changeable covers from the start and you can quickly change looks whenever it's time for a seasonal makeover.
